SAN CAYETANO DE CALABASAS
Nogales Vicinity, Santa Cruz County, Arizona

Owner:

Date of Erection: Circa 1700

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Probably the Jesuit order

Present Condition: Ruinous

Number of Stories: One

Materials of Construction: Adobe brick, stucco, mesquite and cedar, and yellow pine.

Other Existing Records: "Spanish Missions of the Old Southwest", Hallenback.
"Mission Architecture", Prentice Duell.
"Spanish-Colonial Architecture in the United States", Rexford Newcomb.
"Kino's Historical Memoir of Pimeria Alta", H. E. Bolton.
"Rim of Christendom", H. E. Bolton.

Additional Data: This church was never a true mission but was a visita, and was cared for by priests from the neighboring churches. As it survived the year of 1784, it is probably a combination of both the Jesuit and Franciscan periods. (Ref. Regional Historian Neasham, National Park Service, Santa Fe.)
